

WATER MY YARD-LESS IS MORE

In the summer, outdoor water use can account for more than 50 percent of home water use and much of this water is wasted. All over Texas, homeowners are unknowingly drenching their yards thanks to inefficient watering practices or leaking/faulty irrigation systems.

And being more intentional about efficiently watering our yards only when they need it can help reduce outdoor water use, save water for what is important and save money by reducing our water bills?

How then do I know how much and when to water my lawn?

A good way to see if your lawn needs watering is to step on the grass. If it springs back up when you move, it doesn't need water. If it stays flat, the lawn needs watering. Most lawns only need about 1" of water per week.

Another cool way to know is by signing up for WaterMyYard at www.watermyyard.org to receive personalized weekly outdoor watering recommendations via email or text message.

With the WaterMyYard program, homeowners can easily find out exactly how much water their landscape actually needs and how long to water by just providing their address and sprinkler type.

Sign up today and let us save water and money!!

COURT CORNER

Did you know you could be cited for parking on unimproved surface?

Sec. 12.04.001 Parking on property in residential districts

(a) Hard surface required. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to park or allow to be parked on any property under his, her or its control in any residentially zoned district any vehicle on any portion of the property that is not covered with a hard surface.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this section, the following definitions shall apply, unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning:

Hard surface. An area which is constructed of cement, concrete, asphalt, brick, cobblestone, gravel or other commonly accepted paving material.

Vehicle. A mechanical device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn or moved upon a street, highway, waterway, or airway, except devices moved exclusively by human power, or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks, including but not limited to a motor vehicle, truck trailer, trailer or semi-trailer.
